

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Candy

Excited to always grow in my artistic journey and be a part of the show again! I was a tattoo artist on the outside, but in here I find my art branching out into new and exciting directions. I have developed a new love for different faces, and expressing what my idea of beauty is. Thank-you so much for all that you allow us to be, and for believing in myself!
