

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: CJ Howard

My pieces submitted this year are inspired by both the simplicities and the complexities of love. On one hand, love is simple, it is black and white. On the other hand, it is the hardest concept in the world to understand, to express, or to translate. Some languages such as Greek have five (or more) words for love, while others have no direct translation. (Apologies to any non-English speakers — I had only rudimentary access to foreign languages, so any misspellings, misuse, or other lack of syntax or context are my own fault.)
