

Artist Statement — 30th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Alexis Peña

In a world full of chaos art is where I find solace. Sometimes art is the only thing in my life that seems to make sense. I hope to use my passion and talent to give back helping youth express themselves through art-therapy. I want to do non-profit work and open my own art studio.