POA Boredom

My art is an expression of my prison experience. I am employed here as a Prisoner Observation Aid, and during my employment we use clipboards. On the clipboard is graffiti from all of the POA's because of the boredom, I see art on this clipboard. It has people's outdates, loves, math problems (trying to figure out store or work pay), sayings, longings, prayers. So to express my experience - I drew what I saw
