Humble hello's to all readers! My name is Nico. I'm from Upsilanti, Michigan and I've been drawing since I was about 11 or 12 years old. My hobby started out with drawing my own versions of the hit anime series Dragon Ball Z. From there not only did my love for anime grow, my skills in drawing grew as well.
My 9th grade year of high school, I took my one and only Art class and since then I focused more on realism in my art. In 2015, I made the shift from pencil & ink to colored pencil & ink and it's been awesome seeing my work progress over the years! This year is the first time I've ever really applied art for display.
People tell me all the time that my work is cool but curious to see what my work looks like among others.
I hope you all love this sample of my work and you all will be seeing more of me sometime in the near future! Until then, enjoy life!..
