

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Ry "Boogie" Simmon

My art is a visual description of myself and the things that matter to me. Being incarcerated sometimes makes it hard to stay focused on the positives and the things we love. By staying in depth with my art and portraying things that matter to me I can continue to stay connected to me freedom and future.

Please edit your Artist Statement to fit the space provided.