The 2 pieces I'd like to submit and show are of my world. Portraits of her and I. Called Him and I after one of our songs. The images are of us on the day I was arrested, with so many breathtaking moments of showing one another just how much we truly love and mean to each other. I couldn't pass up this platform to take the opportunity to show her just how real my feelings are. So with an entry as the world can see I'd like to take this opportunity to ask you to marry me Mrs Mary Elizabeth Cooper, I've known from day one you were the woman for me everything you've done to be here for me and love and support me every step of the way by my side just salitifies ^{that} my hearts not wrong choosing you. I'll spend forever loving you with all of me and treating you like you deserve. you make me feel more alive than I've ever felt. you erase all my doubts fears or worries. you give me confidence and courage I never even knew existed in me.
