Paper Maché Spray Can

This Peace i have made i call (The Spray-Can) it is based on my Past as a truble kid that lived and grow up in south west Detroit who loved to run around at all hours of the day and night with a backpack that had a black book, six spray can of paint and a hand full of caps bombing the walls full of color and taking the risk of getting caught this Peace represent who and what i was at the age of 14 to the age of 20 a monster at graffiti doing what ever it took to get my name out there and i loved doing it. The Pink paint on the can is for brest cancer awareness for my aunt that is a survial of brest cancer she is the lady that i see as a mother and i miss dearly. this one is for her. Graffiti will never Die.
