WHATT!!! I am very unorthodox I've viewed life through a tinted Kaleidoscope in an upside down manner living a perpetual perpetual Nightmare. I've seen enough light to know what lies beyond the moon. I've known Gaby for intimately and seen both the Cohen brother perspective objectively and subjectively. Yes the underlying matrix of the relativistic algorithms we call day to day life. Slaves to the mundane and all that it entails. I think Crowley said it best "Do what thou wilt has become the whole of the law. And we as individuals are in a race to save what true light there may be lying on the other side of the one coin.
