

Artist Statement — 30th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Destiny Bingaman #670588

Hello! I am writing about why I choose to continue to do Artwork! I came from an unhealthy + toxic past and I could never express myself positive, it always came out negative. I have a 11 yr old daughter, and a 8 yr. old son and I have been away from them for almost 7 years and I have almost 6 left. I ended up loosing my 3 year old daughter when I got locked up and if it wasnt for coming to prison my life would of never been saved and I never would of explored myself or my talents. Even though I can't see my kids right now I dedicate my art work to their interests and keep them alive through my art work! I hope that others will understand that no matter what your situation is you can make it and keep yourself alive with your many talents! Don't let your situation stop you from carrying through life, and being who or what you were called to be! Keep on, Keeping on!!
