

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Crazy Pinta Art

I like to draw it helps me process my emotions.

I chose this piece since being incarcerated has made me ~~realize~~ ^{realized} that love is something we all look for. We have all failed to love back, find love, or to believe anybody could actually truly love you. or that love is real. Guess I have now chosen to take a chance at love again. Being in prison and dreaming of another day spend in the company of a woman that loves me and I love ~~back~~ is something I have come to desire greatly.

We all looking for love, motherly love, brotherly love, and love from a great woman
