

I-CON

431-20

Street Dreams

This is my second year in the art show this year I came along way in many ways art has become a passion that I will never let go of To be able to create something that expresses yourself is amazing to me I hope it does the same to people I share it with .