PCAP Miniatures 2021 Exhibit

Artist Name: Kevin Berry

I have had a difficult life. I was homeless as a teen, alcohol and drug abuse, depression, it was hard. I started playing music when I was eleven and that was something that brought me happiness and helped when I later became homeless. Once I got to prison, at the age of 21, I started drawing as a constructive outlet. I'm not as good as I want to be but I want my work to touch those who receive it. If my work can touch one person, than I know I am going in the right direction.
