

Artist Statement: 26th Annual Exhibition of Art by Michigan Prisoners

Artist Name: Dustin Turbin

We are most vulnerable and open when we dream. Our dream realm needs a protector to keep the constant threat of bad and even evil at bay. Ember is that protector. She is queen of the Uni horns, A goddess whom dictates our dreams base d upon our actions. Even death fears her and cowers in her prescence. This is her portrait as I have seen her in my dream. The frame represents the window between our realms ~~We only begin to truly see when our eyes are closed.~~
~~Our~~ Our true battles begin only when our eyes are closed.
