

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Jeff Hoaglin

Art is a passion that keeps me rooted gives me a avenue to be creative and not have to rely on anyone else. I chose to use this years exhibit to hopefully spread awareness on the Criminal Justice System aimed to help, Yet broken. Mich is so far behind the times we just warehouse inmates rather than rehabilitate them they tease us with small ideas only to keep hope just out of reach. Art has given me tools to help myself and share with others my growth. Thank everyone for coming and especially Thank You to the DoM for giving us a way to display our talents.

Blessings
