Painting takes me to a life outside these walls.
(lips) A piece of the life I lost, but the smile that comes from them lips makes my future brighter.
(Marble) life being so plan can also be a life of beauty.
(Spong Bob & Mickey) Two completely different people can always come to love one another, no matter what you look like!
I found the process to be Fun and eye opening.
I hope others understand a smile a day keeps the doctor away.....
