

Artist Statement: 26th Annual Exhibition of Art by Michigan Prisoners

Artist Name: Marcus Mexicott

Drawing is my way out of here. I've been in here for a while and find place in my head to go is easy when I have a pencil or pen in my hand. I've been drawing for most of my life it's something that keeps me tied to my father we would do projects together before he past and doing this keeps him close. Thank you for your and for looking at my project.
