

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Peter Versluys

In the past I have been doing what I call "one" liners. Seeing from the last guest book everyone loves to see modern form of art I actually enjoy doing something new. As it looks easy ~~at~~ which it is. But it's hard to visualize what to do. A lot of times I have to draw it out a lot of times. It's just like writing an essay. I still do realism drawings, like portraits. But it seems like everyone does ~~it~~ them. I hope all of you enjoy this years art work. And hope to read your feed back.
