

Hilary Martine

464-20

Lilies of Grace

I grew up in an artistic family with 4 brothers who are very creative and push me. With many varieties of bumps in my life I use art to express my emotions & feelings so that they may come to the surface. Finding myself I have learned to provide myself with strength and courage as well as truth, grace and humility.