

Artist Statement — 30th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Thomas Casson

I put a bit of humor into my art because I love a sense of humor and a good laugh at times. I enjoy doing other art work as well because art itself is a good stress reliever.

I would hope to share my art with other people whom is looking forward to looking at my art as its a piece of enjoyment and a conversation piece. I would hope that other people see what I see into my art.
