

Artist Name: Gregory Kopicko-Jones

For as long as I can remember, art for me has been a way to express the things I lack the words to say.

Through my creativity I have been able to gain understanding of who I am as a person and who I wish to become in the future.

With art I'm able to be my true and authentic self, art isn't just a hobby, it's a way of life.